EPE SUSPENDS CONTACT ACTIVITIES FOR 30 DAYS DUE TO THE CORONAVIRUS EPIDEMIC

Washington, DC – Ebony Pyramid Entertainment’s (EPE) announced today that it will suspend all of its contact activities for 30 days, due to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak. “This was a hard decision, but for the safety and health of our guests, staff, and supporters, it was the right thing to do,” said DaJuan Patrick Xavier, President/CEO of EPE. One of the priorities of EPE has always been the safety of its guests. “During the 30-day suspension, we will monitor the Coronavirus situation and determine if it will be safe to resume activities,” said Darryl “DJ” Jenkins, Senior Vice President of EPE Operations.

In addition to the suspension of the contact activities, EPE will also cancel some of its destination events, due to the location and an epicenter activity that may have caused the spread of the virus. The activities and events that will be affected are:

Activity/Event	Status
Sunday Night Karaoke @ The Ugly Mug Washington, DC	30-Day Suspension
Monday Night Karaoke @ District Soul Food Washington, DC	30-Day Suspension
Tuesday Connection @ The Ugly Mug Washington, DC	30-Day Suspension

“We know our suspension of activities and cancellation of events may come as a disappointment, but rest assured when we resume operations the return activities will be epic, so your patience is appreciated,” says Rick Brown, Vice President of EPE Programs and Entertainment.

EPE has notified its Washington, DC venues of this decision and will work with them for resumption of activities. As for the European trip, EPE will tentatively reschedule the trip for next year. Also, Pride Cruisin’ 2020 will be replaced with another Columbus Day Weekend 2020 event.

During this suspension period, EPE encourages guests to visit its website (www.EbonyPyramidUSA.com) and Facebook page (Ebony Pyramid Entertainment) for special online surprises.

In a public statement of EPE’s decision to suspend activities, Xavier stated, “As we all go through this trying period, please take care of yourself and look after one another. Until we all reconnect, I pray that you remain safe and healthy.”
